PROMOTE YOUR COUNSELOR IDENTITY

Wednesday February 25th

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE ADVOCACY

Contribute to the advancement of your profession by getting involved in professional service opportunities within counseling organizations such as CSI, NBCC, ACA, ASCA, licensure boards, and even local, state, or regional counseling organizations and interest networks. Browse the lists below to get started with exploring some professional organizations. These lists consist of American Counseling Association (ACA) Divisions and Branches as well as American School Counselor Association (ASCA) State Associations.

Don't forget!

Want to help promote counselor identity and the counseling profession throughout the world? You can serve the profession on an international level by donating used counseling textbooks to the International Registry for Counsellor Education Programs (IRCEP). IRCEP is sponsoring this book drive to help further its mission of building a global counselor education community. Mail your used textbooks directly to the CACREP headquarters and IRCEP will donate them to counseling programs in need throughout the world.
